INDEX

The names of contributors are printed in SMALL CAPITALS; subjects treated in ordinary type; titles of books reviewed, in italics

ABBOTT, ALDEN H.—The non-urban high school in Massachusetts and New York, 244, 344
Academic celebrations (Autumn), 431
Admission to college, A new method of, 160; The problems of, 105
Advancement (Educational) and the new federalism, 217
Affairs (School) at Memphis, 413
Age and growth, The educational significance of Minot's theory of, 282
Alaska-Pacific Exposition, Exhibit of the Bureau of Education at, 100
American college under fire, 515
American, high school, Genius of, 469; history, Teaching peace thru instruction in, 181; teaching, Contributions to the history of, 179
Are the halycon days of the National Education Association over? 210
Art (The) of translation, 359
Autumn academic celebrations, 431
Ayres (Leonard P.) and Gulick's (Luther Halsey) Medical inspection of schools, 93

Baldwin's (Charles Sears) Writing and speaking, 424
BASCOM, JOHN.—The college library, 139
Basis (Physiological) of success, 316
Bible (English), The study of, 104
BIGELOW, M. A.—Schmucker's (Samuel Christian) The study of nature, 530
Board of education (large), The working of, 43; (State) in Massachusetts, 211
Boy (The) who goes to work, 325
BRANNON, MELVIN A.—Higher education and the farm, 451
Bureau of Education, at the Alaska-Pacific Exposition, Exhibit of, 100; Reorganization in, 214
BUTLER, NICHOLAS MURRAY.—The American college under fire, 515; The call to citizenship, 288; The Carnegie Foundation as an educational factor, 399; A new method of admission to college, 160

Call (The) to citizenship, 288
Carnegie Foundation as an educational factor, 399
Celebrations (Autumn academic), 431
CHANCELLOR, WILLIAM E.—Where are the leaders? 409
CHANDLER, FRANK W.—Spingarn's (J. E.) Critical essays of the seventeenth century, 421
Chemistry and character, 427
Christmas vision, 485
Church and the college, 273
Citizenship, The call to, 288
CLARK, GEORGE ARCHIBALD.—Commercial branches in the high school curriculum, 31
COAR, JOHN FIRMAN.—Remarks, matured and otherwise, on our present educational system, 52
College, admission, The problems of, 105; (The American) under fire, 515; and the church, 273; departments of education, Tendencies in, 186; education, The place of social sciences in, 57; library, 139; The mission of music in, 132; A new method of admission to, 160; requirements in Latin and the school curriculum, 109
College Entrance Examination Board's new definition of the requirement in physics, Interpretation of, 150
Commercial branches in the high school curriculum, 31
Commissioner of Education's report, Facts from, 415
Concerning the evils for credit for quality, 90
Consultative committee (English) on education, Report of, 393
Contributions to the history of American teaching, 179, 493

82943

CRAMPTON, C. WARD.—Education by play, 488
Credit for quality, Concerning the evils of, 90
Current educational publications, 84, 173, 299, 406, 522
Curriculum (high school), Commercial branches in, 31; (school), and college requirements in Latin, 109

Date of the first school in New Netherland, 380
DeBarry's (Richard) Land of promise, 201
Definition (College Entrance Examination Board's) of the requirement in physics, Interpretation of, 150
DEFOREST, FREDERICK M.—College requirements in Latin and the school curriculum, 109
Denver, National Education Association at, 104, 206
Departments (college) of education, Tendencies in, 186
Discussions, 88, 177, 302, 409, 525
Dividing line between secondary and elementary schools, 461
DOOLEY, WILLIAM H.—Practical education for industrial workers, 261

Educational, advancement and the new federalism, 217; factor, The Carnegie Foundation as, 399; Current publications, 84, 173, 299, 406, 522; significance of Minot's theory of age and growth, 282; Present educational system, Remarks on our, 52
Education by play, 488; Tendencies in college departments of, 186; (college), The place of social sciences in, 57; (Higher) and the farm, 451; The working of a large board of, 43; (Practical) for industrial workers, 261; The race factor in, 191
Elective system (The) and the Scottish universities, 226
Elementary and secondary schools, Dividing line between, 461
ELLIOTT, EDWARD C.—Educational advancement and the new federalism, 217
English Bible, The study of, 104
English consultative committee on education, Report of, 393
Evils of credit for quality, Concerning, 90
Exhibit of the Bureau of Education at the Alaska-Pacific Exposition, 100

Factor (educational), The Carnegie Foundation as, 399
Facts from the Commissioner of Education's report, 415
FALKNER, ROLAND P.—Retardation: its significance and its requirements, 122
Farm (The) and higher education, 451
Federalism (new) and educational advancement, 217
Fire, The American college under, 515
First school in New Netherland, Date of, 380
Football: a sport for gentlemen and a moral agent, 525
Foreign languages in the high school, 88

Genius of the American high school (II), 469
Good medical student, Requirements for, 429
GORDY, WILBUR F.—Scott's (Colin Alexander) Social education, 196; Teaching peace thru instruction in American history, 181
GOVE, AARON.—Contributions to the history of American teaching, 493
Growth and age, The educational significance of Minot's theory of, 282
Gulick (Luther Halsey) and Ayres's (Leonard P.) Medical inspection of schools, 93

HAAS, JOHN A. W.—The church and the college, 273
Halycon days of the National Education Association over, Are? 210
Harris, William T., 534
Harvard, Searching of the spirit at, 323
HENKELS, THEODORE.—Gulick (Luther Halsey) and Ayres's (Leonard P.) Medical inspection of schools, 93
Higher education and the farm, 451
High school (American), Genius of, 469; curriculum, Commercial branches in, 31; Foreign languages in, 88; (Non-urban) in Massachusetts and New York, 244, 344
History (American), Teaching peace thru instruction in, 181; of American teaching, Contributions to, 179, 493
Home library (good), A nucleus for, 107

Industrial, life and the school, 433; workers, Practical education for, 261
Inefficiency of modern schools, 302
Instruction in American history, Teaching peace thru, 181
International Commission on the teaching of mathematics, 507
Interpretation (The) of the College Entrance Examination Board's new definition of the requirement in physics, 150

Jenks's (Jeremiah W.) Principles of politics, 96
JOHNSTON, CHARLES HUGHES.—Tendencies in college departments of education, 186
JOHNSTON, EMMA L.—A Christmas vision, 485
JONES, ELMER E.—Stone's (Cliff Winfield) Arithmetical abilities and some factors determining them, 194
Joyce's (George Hayward) Principles of logic, 308

KILPATRICK, W. H.—Date of the first school in New Netherland, 380; Joyce's (George Hayward) Principles of logic, 308

Languages (Foreign) in the high school, 88
Large board of education, The working of, 43
Latin, College requirements in, and the school curriculum, 109; Pronunciation of, 177
Leaders, Where are? 409
LEE, JOSEPH.—The boy who goes to work, 325
Legislation, Meddlesome, 535
Library, (A good home), A nucleus for, 107; The college, 139
Life (industrial) and the school, 433

MANN, CHARLES R.—The interpretation of the College Entrance Examination Board's new definition of the requirement in physics, 150
MANNY, FRANK A.—Dividing line between secondary and elementary schools, 461
Massachusetts, and New York, The non-urban high school in, 244, 344; State Board of Education, 211
Mathematics, The International Commission on the teaching of, 507
MCANDREW, WILLIAM.—When the schoolman fails, 18
MCCAUGHEY, VAUGHAN.—The race factor in education, 191
MCWHOOD, LEONARD B.—The mission of music in college, 132
Meddlesome legislation, 535
Medical student (good), Requirements for, 429
Meeting (Denver) of the National Education Association, 206
Memphis, School affairs at, 413
Method (New) of admission to college, 160
Mill's (John Stuart) Autobiography, 200
Minot's theory of age and growth, Educational significance of, 282
MOORE, MARGARET BROWN.—The inefficiency of modern schools, 302
Music in college, The mission of, 132
Myers's (Charles S.) Textbook of experimental psychology, 198

National Education Association, Are its halycon days over? 210; The Denver meeting of, 104, 206; in 1910, 323
NEARING, SCOTT.—The working of a large board of education, 43
New method of admission to college, 160
New Netherland, Date of the first school in, 380
Non-urban high school in Massachusetts and New York, 244, 344
Notes and news, 100, 206, 316, 427, 534
Notes on new books, 97, 201, 314, 425, 532
Nucleus (A) for a good home library, 107

Peace thru instruction in American history, Teaching, 181
Perrier's (Joseph L.) The revival of scholastic philosophy in the nineteenth century, 96
Physics, Interpretation of the College Entrance Examination Board's new definition of the requirement in, 150
Physiological basis of success, 316
Place of the social sciences in college education, 57
Play, Education by, 488
Practical education for industrial workers, 261
Present educational system, Remarks on, 52
Professorial recantation (A), 1

Problems of college admission, 105
Pronunciation of Latin, 177
Publications, Current educational, 84, 173, 299, 406, 522

Quality, credit for, Concerning the evils of, 90

Race factor in education, 191
RAMALEY, FRANCIS.—The educational significance of Minot's theory of age and growth, 282
Recantation (Professorial), 1
Remarks on our present educational system, 52
Reorganization in the Bureau of Education, 214
Report, (Commissioner of Education's) Facts from, 415; of the English consultative committee on education, 393
Requirement in physics, The interpretation of the College Entrance Examination Board's new definition of, 150
Requirements (College) in Latin and the school curriculum, 109; for a good medical student, 429
Retardation: its significance and its requirements, 122
Reviews, 93, 194, 308, 421, 530
RUSSELL, JAMES E.—The school and industrial life, 433

SACHS, JULIUS.—Schmidkunz's (von, Hans) Einleitung in die akademische Pädagogik, 310
SANDIFORD, PETER.—Report of the English consultative committee on education, 393
Schmidkunz's (von, Hans) Einleitung in die akademische Pädagogik, 310
Schmucker's (Samuel Christian) The study of nature, 530
School, affairs at Memphis, 413; (American high), Genius of, 469; and industrial life, 433; curriculum, and college requirements in Latin, 109; (first), in New Netherland, Date of, 380; (high) curriculum, Commercial branches in, 31; (high), Foreign languages in, 88; (Non-urban high) in Massachusetts and New York, 244, 344
Schoolman (the) fails, When, 18
Schools, (Modern), The inefficiency of, 302; (secondary and elementary), Dividing line between, 461
Sciences (social) in college education, The place of, 57
Scottish universities and the elective system, 226
Scott's (Colin Alexander) Social education, 196
Searchings of the spirit at Harvard, 323
Secondary and elementary schools, Dividing line between, 461
SHOWERMAN, GRANT.—A professorial recantation, 1
Significance, and requirements of retardation, 122; (Educational) of Minot's theory of age and growth, 282
SISSON, EDWARD O.—Genius of the American high school, II, 469
SMITH, DAVID EUGENE.—The International Commission on the Teaching of Mathematics, 507
Social sciences, in college education, The place of, 57
Spingarn's (J. E.) Critical essays of the seventeenth century, 421
Spirit at Harvard, Searchings of, 323
Sport for gentlemen and a moral agent: Football, 525
SQUIRES, VERNON P.—Concerning the evils of credit for quality, 90
State Board of Education in Massachusetts, 211
Stone's (Cliff Winfield) Arithmetical abilities and some factors determining them, 194
STORR, FRANCIS.—The art of translation, 359
Student (good medical), Requirements for, 429
Study of the English Bible, 104
Success, Physiological basis of, 316
System, (Elective) and the Scottish universities, 226; (present educational), Remarks on, 52

Teaching, Contributions to the history of American, 179, 493; of mathematics, The International Commission on, 507; peace thru instruction in American history, 181
Tendencies in college departments of education, 186
Theory (Minot's) of growth and age, The educational significance of, 282
TOMBO, JR., RUDOLF.—Facts from the Commissioner of Education's report, 415
Translation, The art of, 359

Twombly, J. F.—Foreign languages in the high school, 88

Universities (Scottish) and the elective system, 226

Vision (Christmas), 485

Wenley, R. M.—The elective system and the Scottish universities, 226

When the schoolman fails, 18
Where are the leaders? 409
Wolfe, A. B.—The place of social sciences in college education, 57
Woodworth, R. S.—Myers's (Charles S.) Textbook of experimental psychology, 198
Workers (industrial), Practical education for, 261
Working of a large board of education, 43
Work, The boy who goes to, 325